

Computer Integrated Manufacturing Workforce Development Courses

Explore rewarding, high-tech manufacturing careers while preparing for immediate employment as a CNC operator.

Scholarships available.*

CIMN 1001 is designed for students preparing for a manufacturing career. This introductory course will cover the manufacturing process, what it's like to work in manufacturing, various career pathways, the skills utilized in manufacturing environments, and more. (1 credit; Lake County residents pay $132.80*)

CIMN 1050 introduces students to skills needed for success in manufacturing environments. This course focuses on mathematical concepts and blueprint reading. (2 credits; Lake County residents pay $265.60*)
Offered: Tuesday, 6:15-7:55 p.m.
Aug. 22 - Dec. 11, 2020

JOBS! JOBS! JOBS!

According to JobsOhio Northeast Region, employment of Numerical Tool and Process Control Programmers is expected to grow 17.6% through 2026.

17.6%
↑

The median wage is $23.44 per hour or $48,755 per year.

Express registration

For express registration call:
Lakeland's Student Service Center.
Phone: 440.525.7050
email: sscenter@lakelandcc.edu