_____ Friday 3/20 (AM) _____ Friday 3/20 (PM)

Follow-up ½ hour clinic block ____ Yes ____ No

Each band will have a half-hour warm-up time, then a half-hour of stage time:

- 5 min. to enter and settle in
- 15 min. performance (two or three pieces)
- 5-10 min. mini-clinic with guest artists/clinician(s)
- 5 min. exit
- optional follow-up clinic

EQUIPMENT

The Jazz Festival will provide guitar and bass amplifiers, drum kit with cymbals, and vibraphone, congas, and bongos. Any other equipment needed for your performance must be supplied by you and clearly marked with your school's name.

FOOD

Breakers Dining Hall will be open during normal operating hours on Friday from 8:00 AM – 1:00 PM.

Each band is expected to perform on time to facilitate the follow-up clinic.

Following stage time, bands will go to a follow-up clinic to work in detail with one of this year's adjudicators. Also, be sure to pick up a flash drive of your performance before you leave the event. Come early and stay late!

Please act now to reserve a performance time for your group since only a limited number of bands can be accepted for scheduling. (Reservations will be made upon receipt of your check on a first come, first served basis).

Please mail your application and check payable to Lakeland Community College
