LAKELAND’S IN-SERVICE CORRECTIONS ACADEMY!

Lakeland will be conducting its first Corrections Academy in early 2015. This academy is only for in-service corrections officers and, for the time being, not open to students. But, we wanted you to be aware of a future opportunity and reinforce that Lakeland has a vibrant and ever expanding CRMJ program.

HOLDEN UNIVERSITY CENTER PARTNERSHIP!

Youngstown State University Partnership Program
Combining Lakeland Community College and Youngstown State University coursework offers an affordable and convenient way to earn a bachelor’s graduate degree close to home through Lakeland’s Holden University Center. Students may take up to two to three years of coursework at Lakeland – at the lower community college tuition rate and then transfer seamlessly into the Youngstown State University Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice partnership degree program at the university center. For more information or to schedule an advising appointment, please contact the marketing Recruitment Specialist at 440-525-7559, www.lakelandcc.edu/uc or email us at uc@lakelandcc.edu. Graduates of the program receive their degrees from the institution of their partnership degree program. There have been 2 bachelor of science degrees awarded to Lakeland Community College students since the program started almost three years ago!!!

LAKE COUNTY FALL COLLEGE FAIR

Co-sponsored by Lakeland Community College and Lake Erie College, the Lake County Fall College Fair is held in the Athletic and Fitness Center on Lakeland. This annual event is free and open to the public. More than 100 colleges and universities are represented each year and offer students the opportunity to speak with college personnel and ask questions regarding programs offered at that particular college or university.

The Lake County Fall College Fair will be held Sunday, October 5, 2014 from noon-2 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Criminal Justice Adjunct Daniel Ponstingle on receiving the Distinguished Service Award for 40 years of service to Lakeland Community College! From serving as former commander of both Lakeland’s Private Police and Basic Police Academy to serving as the primary and pivotal coordinator of our internship program, we’re proud of Dan! You, too, can experience an internship under his leadership: consider enrolling in CRMJ2239/Internship this spring for three (3) technical elective credit hours!

Congratulations to Criminal Justice Adjunct Instructor, retired Lakeland Police Chief James T. McBride! Jim has taught for our program for over 30 years and brings his vast experience of being our police chief, former Basic Police Academy Commander and celebrated author to his teaching. Look for his classes on CRMJ1117/Community Policing or CRMJ2250/Current Issues!

Congratulations to Associate Professor Greg Truhan and adjunct, retired Chef J.T. McBride on their recent book being published. It is titled “K-PH.D. School and Campus Shootings Awareness,” published by Kendall Hunt this past summer.
