

The Bowling Green State University (BGSU) K-12 Online Teaching and Learning Certificate program prepares K-12 classroom teachers to be effective online teachers and provide them with the research skills necessary to investigate student learning within online K-12 educational contexts. Synthesis with psychological and social perspectives is made with students in the virtual world.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants are required to submit scanned copies of official or unofficial transcripts from all institutions attended. Upon admission, final official or notarized copies of transcripts from all institutions where degrees were earned and diplomas from international institutions must be submitted. Also, applicants are asked to provide a statement of purpose. One of the following test scores is required for those applying for the certificate program that have not already earned a master's degree: Praxis scores, OAE scores or GRE scores (within the last five years). Applicants are also asked to submit a letter of interest.

TUITION & FEES:

BGSU has competitive tuition for eCampus students in the program. Please refer to <https://www.bgsu.edu/bursar.html> for current tuition and fees. Not all fees in the tuition brochure apply.
