

Bachelor of Science in Allied Health

ONLINE

The Bachelor of Science in Allied Health (BSAH) at BGSU is an online degree completion program for individuals with associate degrees in accredited allied health programs and medical fields.

The BSAH program provides a baccalaureate education for students with a technical background and provides the tools needed for problem solving, computing, communication, and most importantly how to effectively apply those skills in the healthcare system. Of the 30 fastest-growing occupations in the labor market, more than half are in the allied healthcare field. This is the perfect program for allied health professionals who are interested in becoming supervisors, allied health instructors at community colleges, or applying to graduate school.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Students must have an associate degree in an allied health field. Refer to <https://www.bgsu.edu/catalog/academic-policies/transfer-admissions.html> for GPA requirements and transfer information.
