Civic Performance Program

Lakeland Community College provides talented community members with many opportunities for expressing their artistic abilities in the performing arts. The college's civic performance program, which is a part of the Arts and Sciences Division, offers community members a theater program and music groups through which they can express and advance their talents. The college's five music groups include the Lakeland Civic Band, Lakeland Civic Chorus, Lakeland Civic Flute Choir, Lakeland Civic Jazz Orchestra and Lakeland Civic Orchestra,. Additionally, the college offers talented high school students Jazz Impact, an all-star high school music group. The Lakeland Civic Theatre program offers community members the opportunity to perform in or work backstage on several productions each year. The groups and their directors are listed below:

Lakeland Civic Band

Director, Frank Cosenza

Lakeland Civic Chorus

DIRECTORS

EDWARD G. MICHAELS – Over the years, Ed Michaels has established himself as a strong voice in the field of music education and saxophone performance. He is well known for his leadership in directing the annual Lakeland Community College Jazz Festival; directing Lakeland's all-star high school jazz ensemble - Jazz Impact; and most recently serving as interim director of Lakeland's Civic Jazz Orchestra.

Mr. Michaels earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Music Education from Duquesne University, in his native Pittsburgh, PA.; and a Master of Music Degree from Northwestern University, in Evanston, IL., where he studied saxophone with the legendary Dr. Fred Hemke. Ed studied improvisation with Phil Rizzo, a clinician for the Stan Kenton Jazz Orchestra.

As a tenor saxophonist, Ed is often heard performing with the top musicians of Northeast Ohio, among them, some of his former students. He has recorded a CD as leader, entitled Going Beyond on the Nice Jazz Label. The list of musicians with whom Ed has performed includes Phil Woods; Donald Byrd; Pacquito D'Rivera; Bobby Sanabria; and Clarence Clemons. His quartet has played extended engagements at the Century Room of Cleveland's prestigious Ritz-Carlton Hotel, the Grille Room of downtown Cleveland's Embassy Suites Hotel, Cleveland's Fat Fish Blue, and Club Isabella. Whatever the venue, Ed feels a strong commitment to promoting jazz and American music; and this can especially be seen in Ed's love for both teaching and playing.

DEMETRIUS STEINMETZ holds a Master of Music in string performance and Bachelor of Music in jazz studies from Bowling Green State University. In addition to directing the Lakeland Civic Jazz Orchestra, he is also part of the jazz studies faculty at Cuyahoga Community College where he teaches courses including applied bass and piano, performance ensembles, class piano, class guitar, and Rock and Roll history. He has more than a decade's worth of experience teaching for Tri-C's Jazz Preparatory Program, as well as Tri-C's "Summer With The Jazz Masters" camp.

Steinmetz is currently an instructor for the outreach program through the Cleveland Jazz Orchestra working with students from the Cleveland Metropolitan School District. He has been an instructor for the Center for Arts-Inspired Learning's ArtWorks program, leading a group of jazz "apprentices," mentoring them in music while working on 21st century skills. He has also designed a jazz improvisation course for saxophone camp, coached combos for jazz camp, and instructed double bass techniques for string students at BGSU summer music camps as well as jazz studies majors.

Steinmetz spent four years as Artist in Residence at the Cleveland School of the Arts, where he was director of bands and jazz ensemble. He has been an instructor for the instrumental music after-school program for the 21st Century Community Learning Center and Young Audiences of Greater Cleveland and has taught saxophone and bass at The Fine Arts Association in Willoughby, as well as the Beck Center for the Arts.

Steinmetz performs professionally in the Cleveland area, and has performed with nationally known artists such as Jimmy Heath, Carl Allen, the Glenn Miller Orchestra, Kim Nazarian, Howard Johnson, Doug Lawrence and Chico Hamilton. He has been recorded on Cadence Records, which received four stars in a review in Downbeat magazine.
