COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Become a Personal Trainer

Personal trainers work with clients to develop fitness workouts, strength training and stretching, as well as nutrition and health coaching.

Trainers:

- » Demonstrate and explain exercises to improve fitness
- » Ensure clients use correct technique
- » Monitor progress and adapt programs to client needs
- » Explain safety in use of exercise equipment
- » Give clients information about good nutrition and healthy lifestyles

How long does it take to complete this program and be job-ready?

- » Approximately one year to complete.
- » Sessions start each spring and fall. Summer session also offered.

Credential

Lakeland's program graduates are prepared to take a national exam to become a certified personal trainer known as a CPT.

How to Start

Why Lakeland?

- » Earning your certificate at Lakeland earns you college credit, which give you a head start on furthering your education.
- » Some of our core classes lead you to a pathway to completing other health program certificates/degrees at Lakeland.

Contact the program coordinator for details to start in the next session.
