Civic Performance Program

Lakeland Community College provides talented community members with many opportunities for expressing their artistic abilities in the performing arts. The college's civic performance program, which is a part of the Arts and Sciences Division, offers community members a theater program and music groups through which they can express and advance their talents. The college's five music groups include the Lakeland Civic Band, Lakeland Civic Chorus, Lakeland Civic Flute Choir, Lakeland Civic Jazz Orchestra and Lakeland Civic Orchestra,. Additionally, the college offers talented high school students Jazz Impact, an all-star high school music group. The Lakeland Civic Theatre program offers community members the opportunity to perform in or work backstage on several productions each year. The groups and their directors are listed below:

Lakeland Civic Band

Director, Frank Cosenza

Lakeland Civic Chorus

Director, Ben Richard

Lakeland Civic Flute Choir

Director, Judith Elias

Lakeland Civic Jazz Orchestra

Director, Demetrius Steinmetz

DIRECTOR

BEN RICHARD has directed middle school, high school and church choirs around the state of Ohio since 1999. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Cincinnati, College-Conservatory of Music and a Master of Music degree from Ohio University. Most recently, Ben has worked for the Willoughby-Eastlake School District, directing choirs at Willoughby Middle School and Willoughby South High School since 2005. He has also served as choir director at Grace Church of Mentor since 2006. Additionally, Ben has worked as director, clinician and guest conductor for various collaborative choir events in church, school and community-based contexts. Ben is eager to share his love of choral music in this, his latest opportunity: directing the Lakeland Civic Chorus. When not directing choirs, Ben enjoys spending time at home in Leroy Township with his wife, Julie, and their four children, Simon, Graham, Oliver and Laurel.

ACCOMPANIST

TERESA TOOMEY COSENZA is in her second year as accompanist for the Lakeland Civic Chorus. She is also a member of the Lakeland Civic Band where she plays trombone and percussion. Cosenza was a music educator for 30 years, retiring in 2017 from West Geauga Local Schools. She was the assistant band director since 1993, teaching instrumental music grades five through 12. Since retiring, she has been working as a freelance musician on trombone and as a piano accompanist.

As a member of the Ohio Music Educators Association (OMEA), Cosenza has served as an adjudicator for OMEA sponsored Solo and Ensemble events. In addition, she has served as the performance group coordinator for the OMEA professional development conferences since 2018. She is a member, and trustee of Windjammers Unlimited whose mission is to preserve traditional music of the circus. Besides playing trombone at their conventions, she is one of the conductors and is a member of their Conductors' Committee.

Teresa holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Bowling Green State University with a double major in piano and trombone and a Master of Music from The University Akron. She is the mother of a daughter and son, Maria and Frank, as well as the proud grandmother of Hudson and Giuliana. She is married to Frank Cosenza, director of the Lakeland Civic Band, and they reside in Mentor, Ohio.
