

DISCOVERING
THE WORLD
THROUGH GIS

GISday

Wednesday,
Nov. 14, 2018

9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Lakeland
Community College
HIVE, H-Building

Geographic Information Systems (GIS) includes the mapping technologies that are used to capture, analyze and display information in order to better understand our world.

DID YOU KNOW? GIS technology is used for: business, city planning, education, real estate surveying – and much more!

Events

Room: H-Building Atrium – first floor

- View exhibits and demonstrations from area agencies and business professionals who use GIS
- Free food and refreshments

Room: HIVE

- Hands-on activities: button-making and screen-printing
- Map-a-thon

Room: H-005/H-008

- 10 a.m. - Lake Erie Allegheny Partnership (LEAP) meeting
- 12:30 p.m. – Drones of Northeast Ohio Discussion and Demonstration (weather permitting)

Room: H-303 Garden Classroom

- 10 a.m. – Euclid Creek Restoration
- 10:30 a.m. – Regional Economic Development and NASA
- 11 a.m. – Survey 123 App and the Operations Dashboard
- 11:30 a.m. – Geospatial Humanitarian Volunteering

FREE and open to the public.

Find out how to pursue a degree or certificate in geospatial technology at Lakeland!

Contact: Lisa Stanich,
Geography and Geospatial Technology
440.525.7785 • Istanich@lakelandcc.edu
lakelandcc.edu/geography

Lakeland
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
GEOGRAPHY AND GEOSPATIAL TECHNOLOGY

#gisday